John Foley and the Twelfth and Mineteenth Ward Folks "See William" About It-A Long Talk and What I: Amounted to-They Endorse the Ruin of Broadway.

The Execut ve Committee of the Tweifth and Nineteenth Ward Associations, headed by Mr. John Fo'ey, assembled by appointment yesterday at the Gladstone House, in Madison avenue, and thence in a body proceeded to the office of the Harlem Railroad Company to "interview" Mr. Wm. H. Vanderbilt about that Marison avenue ratiroad which was actually begun some time ago.

On the arrival of the committee at the rallroad office,
Mr. Vanderbit was found confortably seated in a spacious arm chair, in his plainly forn shed room just off the clerk. department. He received the committee with as much cordiality as though they had it in their power to jut up Hudson or Central ten per cent by a new shake of their combine! heads, and had called with the determination to shake their heads for that financially de ightful purpose. An entire chair was handed to ea h member of the committee, which he smitingly accepted and then placed himse f in a position that enabled him to "corner" Mr. Van lers t with his eyes every time

Mr. P ley took go d care when he entered the room at the head of his fellows to place himself to the left and very near to Mr. Vanderbit, and so, while commanding a piensant view of the movement of the cars go ng out of the depot in the street below, tee on the opposi e side of the room, but Mr. Van-deroilt on the one side and the cierks in the ou er office on the other. This was what might be called strateg on Foley's part, although he didn't tell any-body that he knew it, which showed him to be a

THE GREAT CARPET ROBBERY.

At Yorkville Police Court yesterday morning Jus-tice Coulter took some further affidavits in the case and Michael Garvey, charged with the theft of thir-teen rolls of valuable carpet, costing about $15,000. It will be remembered that on the morning of the 16th inst. officer Corey, of the Twenty-second pre-cinct, who, with officer Maher, had been on duty together for the purpose, succeeded in arresting the above named prisoners at the foot of Fity-fitth street North river, with five of the thirteen pieces that had been solen. They had been taken from a sloop in the river, the owner of which, Dunn, was

Mr. Edward Bnil, the foreign clerk of the carpet department of A. T. Siewart, at the corner of Chambers street and Eroadway, testified to having placed the diteen pieces of carpet in charge of the tailyman at the depot of the Hudson River Railroad, who, in turn, testified to having locked the carpet in the freight train bound for Chicago. The carpet was consigned to Alien & Mackay, of Chicago. This was on the 15th inst., and on the following day the prisoners were arrested with five of the pieces in their possession. It is supposed that the carpet was stolen from the care at Dombs Ferry, where they are switched off to allow the passage of another train haward bound, and where the rain is forced to make a short delay. The examination was postponed to awart the arrival in this ity of the representative of Alien & Mackay, from Chi ago, whose presence is ne essary to prove that the property has not used.

THE BULL MOVEMENT.

The week closed on an excited and buoyant stock market, with a general feeling of confidence and increasing disposition to buy among outsiders, even at the present advanced prices. The continued case in money, with the promise presented in a favorable bank statement of its maintenance for some time, and p stibly greater ease, has served to inspire the mat hopeful feeling, and, being already discounted, aided during the day to secure a further upward movement in prices. This has likewise been stimulated by the general belief, amounting almost to certainty, that Garfield's bill retiring the three per cents and a portion of legal tenders will never per cents and a portion of legal tenders will never be accepted by the House. The experience of the past week in Wall street has not been lost upon Congress. Regarding movements here as thermometrical in their relation, as in this last experience they have been to the general business of the country, and tracing the course of the recent sudden revival of activity and appreciation of values to the conviction, growing every day stronger with men of observation in "nancial circles, that aff RADICAL PINANCIAL LEGISLATION was to be abandoned this session, or would be de-feated, they realize the simple duty imposed upon them in the present crisis of responding to that ex-pectation as conscientious representatives, and avoiding all enactments calculated to produce great disturbance. And particularly is it felt that all contraction measures, all currency bills looking to with-drawal from circulation of any portion of the legal money of the country, competent to serve as a por-tion of the bank reserve, even though the wants of ordinary business were provided for by the substitution of a baser circulating medium, in the shape of national bank notes, competent enough for the purposes of trade, but utterly worthless to the banks as a security, should be care-

> SUPREME COURT-CHAMBERS. Application to Transfer a Lanatic.

Before Judge Brain.

In the matter of the Application for Removal of Beorge C. Dunbar, from Jail to a Lunatte Asylum.— George C. Dunbar, from Jail to a Lunatic Asylum.—
This case grew out of a Wall street transaction, and the facts appear to be as follows:—Some time ago the pettioner, Dunbar, who was doing an extensive business in Wall street, had a large amount of stock transmitted to min for sale by one of his c'editors.
The sale was effected, but Dunbar having male no return of the proceeds, was arrested and placed in Ludlaw Street Jail, where he lay for several months, when, it is claimed, he became perfectly innectic or insane. He was therefore brought before Judge Brady yesterday, and his transfer from the jail to a lunatic asylum, where he could be properly cared for, asked for. Mr. P. J. Gage, representing one of the creditors, did not object, and Judge Brady accordingly ordered a temporary transfer of the petitioner to the Bloomingdale Lunatic Asylum and adjourned the further hearing in the matter over to Wednesday next.

An Important Decision. Before Judge Monell.

In the Superior Court jesterday an opinton was rendered in the case of the Bank of the Common-wealth vs. T. J. Temple. Defendant, it will be rewealth vs. T. J. Temple. Defendant, it will be remembered, was the partner of Marsh, who "defaultein some time ago to the tune of $17,000. The bank claimed that Temple was responsible for the misleeds of his partner. An appeal from a decision in favor of Tem it was carried to the Superior Court, which, in its dicision, affirms the judgment of the court below. Judge Monell delivered the counton, in which he is sustained by Judge Spencer—Judge Jones dissenting.

Judge Brady sis will not have any calendar daring the first week. In the Special Term there is quite a heavy calendar, and on the 35th of the monta Judge Barnard will sit to hear the continuation of the Erie-Vanderoit case.

The Superior Court Judges Jones and Monell will bold Trial Teams and Judge McCann the Special Term. PHARACH AND HIS HOSTS.

The Way Justice Dowting Proposes to Deal with Those who Play with the Tiger.

says that he is captain of the canal boat T. R. Horton, appeared before Justice Dowling yesterday afternoon, as complainant in a case of gambling, against Mary Fallard, whom he charged with winning from him $300 at the game of faro, at one sitting, at No. 14 South street, in New York city. On cross-examination, William F. Howe, who appeared as examination, William F. Howe, who appeared as counsel in behalf of the prisoner, d-veloped the fact that the captain had been in prison in Jersey City for counterfeiting and also for lairceny. It was also proven that he played in ten dilierent faro banks, and lost so much money that he became desirous of breaking up the gambling institutions. The canal captain also admitted, in reply to Mr. Howe's inquiries, that he had lost money in Broadway undersimiliar circumsiances, yet made no complaint against the proprietors of the Broadway establishments. Counsel asked why he did not take steps to procure the arrest of the Broadway tigers, when Judge Dowling said, "I do not intend to permit that line of cross-examination, and give you distinctly to understand that while I will not go out of my way to have complaints brought before me, yet I am determined if a complainant voluntarily comes into court and makes a complaint against the proprietors of gaming houses, even should they be members of Congress, I shall fearlessly administer the law and hold the guity party, no matter how high their station, if the evidence warrants." After some manieresting testimony the case was closed and the dejendant held to answer.
